OUR LEARNING

focus...

November Student of the Month:... Marysol!!!!!!

Year 1:

Unit 2: History and Trends in American Education (Group Project) - Ch. 5-6

1. Explain how historical events and people shaped the American education system
2. Explain how people and events helped to develop the modern American education system.

* Students are working with a team to develop slides used to teach their peers about either Early History or Modern History of Education. Guidelines are provided to help them with this opportunity to gain understanding of our education history and practice teaching.

Year 2:

Unit 3: Human Growth and Development (Group Project) - Ch. 9-11

Objectives:

Identify the stages of human growth and development and describe the progression of learning abilities with each phase.

*Student are working in small groups studying a certain phase of child development based on their preferred phase to teach. They are to create a board game highlighting the physical growth, intellectual growth, language development, and emotional and social growth following guidelines to foster creativity.
